

Introduction to Facilitation – Part I: a training for aspiring equine-assisted learning facilitators

Time: 9am until 4pm with an hour lunch all three days

Class Size: A maximum of 4 participants

Agenda: The first two mornings will address theory and, in the afternoon, experiential learning with the horses. Day one focuses on safety, the structure of your program and your program vision. Day two is about programming. Day three is a practicum day where participants will take turns facilitating exercises with the horses, and is thus experiential all day.

Food: Drinks and snacks will be provided. Participants can bring their own lunch.

Cost: $650 + GST per person = $682.50
